Delany boarded with Mrs. Lufborough, and it was said he was paying attention to her daughter. He went home the afternoon of June 12, and when something occurred that irritated him, carolessly threw his pistol to the bureau. It fell to the floor and exploded, a bullet striking Mrs. Lufborough. One of the causes of compisint against the polleeman was that he did not report the secident until twelve hours later.

The Dublin Preeman's Journal says:
"The curtain falls on the discomfiture of the peers, the inveterate enemies of Iriah nationality, only to rise straight-way on that nationality in its tri-way on that hattonanty umph."

The Irish Daily Independent of Dublin says: "So far as Ireland is concerned, the Lords may keep home rule back two years, and a feeble measure as well as a bold one will receive the same treatment at their hands. In these circumstances the Government should face the question boldly."
